Rev. J. W. Carter, the pastor, conducted the service. The beautiful floral pieces included flowers from the Attawapung company, mill superintendents and overseers, departments of the Attawapung company's mills from clubs, banks, relatives and friends.

Burial was in Grove street cemetery. The bearers were H. C. Wood, George Brown and Frank Bennett, all holding positions with the Attawapung company.

Benjamin M. Burdick, resident in the Mashentuck district, had two bones broken in the back of his right hand Thursday when a horse that he was driving while he worked for the town of wood to which the animal was attached, suddenly bolted, throwing Mr. Burdick off his balance and causing his hand to be crushed between a tree and the forward wheel of the wagon. The accident happened while Mr. Burdick was coming out

Various small bands of young herabouts have a covering of ice sufficient to allow of trying out the skates. Gillin's pond, at the head of the main road, is one of the favorite places. That there is skating does not mean that the larger bodies of water are safe. At present there is no need of war against skating on either the Quinebaug or Attawapung rivers, for the very reason that they are not even frozen over.

Mills of the Attawapung company at the village of that name and at Ballouville and Pineville were closed Thursday afternoon as a mark of respect to Ager Florence H. Truesdell, of the company. Large numbers of the employees attended the funeral service.

Self-Reliance Goes Bankrupt

Thin Blood Saps Energy Gude's Pepto-Mangan Rebuilds the Blood

Wrestling with a weakened condition of the blood is a desperate struggle. Thin, watery blood deprives the body of energy and causes a played-out feeling not unlike utter exhaustion. A man with weak blood has not the full use of his powers. He lacks decision, and vacillates until he loses self-confidence.

Some men, and women too, go faltering along for months, scarcely realizing that they need Gude's Pepto-Mangan, the blood-builder. But when they have taken it for a while, what a difference there is in the feeling! The old-time vigor and the red-blooded hue of good health return. The new rich blood gets to work, building, fortifying, lifting the spirit up to its normal standard. Physicians have prescribed Gude's Pepto-Mangan for years as a blood-builder. Druggists sell it in liquid and tablet form. Look for the name "Gude's Pepto-Mangan" on the package. Advertisement.
